Press Release: Farmers' Cooperative Association and CBH Cooperative to become CBH CO-OP

CBH and FCA are currently energy and agricultural-based companies selling propane, refined fuels, lubricants, feed, seed, chemical, fertilizer, and agricultural-related application services in western South Dakota, eastern Wyoming, and southeastern Montana. CBH and FCA have a strong retail presence in convenience stores, farm stores, and a retail tire center. The merger has come about in order to efficiently and profitably provide products and services to a broad business spectrum.

The cooperatives combined bring 150 years of products and services to a variety of industry and customers.
